Home composting, yes!

A new guide explains the importance of home composting. In addition, you will find the recipe for obtaining quality compost. It is enough to have a balance between carbonaceous matter (like dead leaves) and nitrogenous matter (like food residues). Finally, the guide presents the accepted and refused foods.

Do you know Book Boxes?

The Township of Wentworth has a free book exchange network on its territory that promotes sharing. Perhaps you will discover new books thanks to the Book Boxes near you:

- 114 Louisa Road
- Neill Road
- Boyd Road

Distribution and exchange

About twenty people were present for the first edition of distribution and exchange. A big thank you to everyone who donated books. The remaining books will be donated to organizations. We will definitely come back to you with a next edition!

Swimming lessons open to everyone!

The Lake Louisa Social Club (LLSC) is a non-profit organization and proud affiliate member of the Quebec Lifesaving Society. This summer, swimming instructors certified in water safety (MSA) will offer swimming lessons from parent-child level to level 10. In addition, the LLSC also offers Bronze Star and Bronze Cross lessons. All courses are for both members and non-members.

For all information, please visit their website or Facebook page.

Free access to the tennis court.

In partnership with the Lake Louisa Social Club, residents of Wentworth will have, at certain times, free access to the tennis court. It's time to get out your tennis and pickleball racket!

Discover the hours reserved for citizens of Wentworth:

- Sunday from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.
- Tuesday from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

From June 21 until October 15, 2023 at 132, chemin du Lac Louisa Sud.

Dunany Country Club

It is with great pleasure that the private club is once again opening its golf course to residents of Wentworth this summer! You can play up to 2 rounds of 9-hole golf for free with a DDC Ambassador. Each round must be played after 2 p.m., Monday through Thursday.

For those interested, please contact the Departures Manager at (450) 562-4885.
